PORTSMOUTH DRIVING CLUB PLAN FOURTH OF JULY RACES

Rockingham Park Will Have Even Better Attractions Than on Memorial Day.

That the Portsmouth Driving Club has no intention of resting on its Memorial Day success is very evident and at the meeting held Friday night plans were made and committees appointed for the holding of a more elaborate program for the 4th of July at the Rockingham Park. P. T. McWilliams and Dr. W. D. Inglis were elected clerks of the course and they will be busy from now until the day of the sports making up the races from the horses to be entered.

There will be music furnished by a brass band, motor cycle races, horse races, bicycle races, and among other events to create a little amusement, a greased pig race will be held. The committee and directors will do everything possible to improve the condition of the track, which even at this time is perhaps even in as fine condition as any half mile track in New England. The grand stand will probably be ready by that time and the judges' stand will be moved up the track quite a distance, so as to allow more speed to be made before the first turn is made. This will also tend to make the driving even safer than it is at present.

Horace Wiggins and Charles H. Allen were appointed as the committee for the music. William P. Woods will have charge of the motor cycle and bicycle races, and A. B. Racine and Eugene McCue will have charge of the greased pig race. The stables will be in the hands of the racing committee: J. Hett, chairman; J. Quill, A. E.

Freeman, W. McGinnis, W. A. Bragdon.
The other officers of the club for the year of 1915 are:

The Steamship Penfield Sunk By Submarine in English Channel--Austro-German Drive on Lemberg Checked By Russians

(Special to The Herald)
Brest, England, June 5.—The French steamship Penfield, which was bound from Nantes, France, to Cardiff, Wales, was sunk in the English Channel by a German submarine. The crew were all saved and brought to this port today. The attack was made Thursday afternoon without warning and the vessel sank immediately. The Penfield was a 794 ton steamer and hailed from Nantes.

Petrograd, June 5.—A great battle is in progress between the Austro-German army moving on Lemberg from the south and the Russian army along the Dniester river, 30 miles south of Lemberg. The Russian troops operating between the Stryp and the Tysmenica rivers in East Galicia have fallen back but the attacks of the Germans to dislodge the Russians from their position on the Dniester river were repulsed with heavy losses. The Russians took 700 prisoners and many machine guns. Of the prisoners taken 17 of them were officers. On the Boho river the Germans have resumed their bombardment of Ossowice with heavy guns.

WANT HIM TO REMAIN

Committee Not Inclined to Accept His Resignation.

It is understood that the Republican City Committee do not wish to accept the resignation of Chairman E. L. Gupill and that they will try to have him continue at the head of the organization. In case he should insist on retiring, the following well known members of the party are mentioned as candidates to succeed him: William J. Cate, Ceylon Spinnery, Harry B. Boynton, W. Percy Stoddard, Col. U. H. Bartlett, Col. John Pender, Frank J. Philbrick.

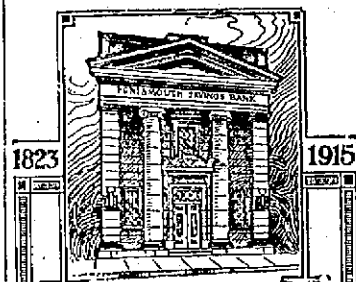

The committee have not yet held a meeting relative to the matter but the sentiment of the majority shows that the organization will prevail upon him to remain if possible.

RAILWAY CLERKS ON NEW HAVEN VOTE TO STRIKE

Ninety-Eight Per Cent of the Members of Union Send in Affirmative Ballot.

New York, June 5.—That the clerks in the employment of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and the New England Steamship Company, who are members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks may go out on a possible strike was learned today. A strike ballot setting forth the grievances of the Brotherhood and the negotiations there on were mailed to every male and female in the union on May 3 by the joint board of adjustments composed of the members of the railroad committee and the steamship committee. It was learned today that 98 per cent of the 2000 and over members voted in favor of the strike.

LONGER STAY FOR MONTANA

Vessel Not Likely to Leave Before September.

It has been practically decided that the cruiser Montana will remain here all summer, or at least until the first of September. The extension of time on the repairs of the vessel was made necessary by the discovery of defective couplings of the shaft. The vessel was nearly ready for sea and the work was to have been completed on June 10th. The timely discovery of the defective couplings will no doubt cause some upsets of the plans of the department as to the vessel but on the other hand it means a saving of expense to the government as it might have been a more serious matter had the vessel been allowed to proceed to sea, and had anything happened while under steam, or engaged in practice work. The yard officers will push the work with much vigor as soon as the parts necessary are in the hands of the workmen.

JURY RENDERS A VERDICT OF $5,000 IN WILDER CASE

Husband Says That Every Cent of Money Will Be Given to Charities.

A valuation of $5,000 was placed on the affections of Mrs. George H. Wilder, of Summit, N. J., yesterday by the jury which for three days had listened to testimony before Judge George S. Silzer in Morristown, N. J., supporting her husband's allegation that her love for him had been stolen by Dr. George Stuart Wilder, prominent socially and professionally in that section of New Jersey. The action was for $50,000.

Immediately after the verdict had been rendered Mr. Wilder, wealthy New York stock broker, reiterated his declaration on the witness stand of the day before that he would donate the money granted him by the jury to a Morristown charity, to be selected by the editors of the newspapers of that community.

"Not a cent of that money ever will be accepted by me," asserted Mr. Wilder as he heard the report of the jury foreman to Judge Silzer. "I did not bring this action for money, but only as a service I owed to the residents of Morristown, into whose homes this man has been going."

"I feel very, very sorry for him; very, very sorry," was Mrs. Wilder's only comment as she sat in her automobile outside the courthouse in Morristown, and was asked what she thought of the verdict against Dr. Wilder. It was generally agreed that it was Mrs. Wilder's testimony regarding her relations with Dr. Wilder that swung the jury in her husband's favor. She did not enter the court room to hear the verdict.

Y. M. C. A. LOSE TO THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Leaders Defeated in Fast Game by 5 to 2 Score Last Evening

The leaders went down to defeat in last evening's Sunset League game at the hands of the Knights of Columbus to the tune of 5 to 2. But the Y. M. C. A. team still has a little lead of half a game on the P. A. C. the second team.

The Y. M. C. A. team has been playing a tight ball all the season but it looked from the outside as though the K. of C. had just a little on them. The Knights made only six hits, the same as the Y. M. C. A. did, but their were bunched and counted in the run getting. Good infield play also figured in the Knights game, the cutting off at the plate of Gibson as he was coming home with a run in the second and getting Thomas the same way in the fourth did a lot towards holding the lead. Both teams showed with new pitchers, the Knights of Columbus putting in Schofield and McPheters changing places with Jordan. But the change of pitchers had little to do with the final result of the game as it was the Knights' evening and they would have won if Rubo Marquard had been in the box. The game was won, not because the Y. M. C. A. team was playing poor ball, but because the K. of C. were playing ball all the time and also had the luck to have their hits go "where they ain't."

The Game

1st inning—J. Timmons fanned. P. Bailey hit down the base line to Gibson and was out at first. O'Brien's long fly was caught by Craig. No runs. Jordan hit to the shortstop and was out at first. P. Bailey hit to Jordan, who threw to Butler, getting Timmons at third. No runs.

Thomas drew a pass. He was out trying to make second. J. Bailey to Reardon, as he attempted to get back to first. Gibson singled to right, Craig hit safe over second, advancing Gibson. Shuttleworth flied out to J. Timmons. McPheters got an infield hit, started second as the ball was thrown in to cut off the run. Bailey threw to second and Gibson started home. P. Bailey returned the throw and Gibson was out at the plate. No runs.

Bailey hit down the first base line and was out when Gibson touched the bag. O'Brien singled to center scoring Schofield and J. Timmons. Reardon hit safe over third scoring O'Brien and was out at second. Thomas to Jordan. Three runs.

Jordan was walked. Mulholland fanned. Marden hit to short, forcing Jordan at second. P. Timmons to P. Bailey. Marden was out stealing. J. Bailey to P. Bailey. No runs.

4th inning—Mercer hit the ball and was thrown out at first. Marden to Gibson. P. Timmons flied out to Mulholland. J. Bailey's fly was captured by Jordan. No runs.

Butler hit safe to left field. Thomas was passed. Gibson was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Craig got a sacrifice fly to O'Brien, scoring Butler. Shuttleworth hit to P. Timmons who threw Thomas out at the plate. McPheters was safe on an infield hit, which scored Gibson. Jordan's fly was caught by P. Bailey. Two runs.

5th inning—P. Timmons reached first on an infield hit. Schofield fanned. J. Timmons got a two bagger to right, scoring P. Timmons. P. Bailey was out at first. Jordan to Gibson. J. Timmons scoring. O'Brien was hit by McPheters. Reardon singled. Mercer hit to McPheters who tagged him out on the base line. Two runs.

Mulholland was thrown out at first. Schofield to Reardon. Marden singled over second. Butler flied out to T. Timmons. Marden went to sleep on first and Reardon, who had the ball, tagged him out. No runs.

TRY ALL DAY TO FIRE A TORPEDO

G-1, Finished at New York Navy Yard, Has a Faulty Tube.

Newport, R. I., June 4.—"We might just as well leave this type of submarine in Narragansett Bay all winter," stated an officer of the submarine flotilla tonight after commenting on the futile all day efforts to load a dummy torpedo into the tube of the submarine G-1.

"It repeatedly stuck in the tube and therefore could not be fired," said the officer. "We worked on the dummy and tube from 8 this morning until 5 this afternoon. If a service torpedo had been used instead of a dummy, it would have been ruined."

The submarine which was finished at the New York yard after the contracting company had financial troubles must go back to the yard for about three months to have the fault remedied.

HARPER, IN FREAK DEAL, AGREES TO TRANSFER IF ALLOWED ON SLAB NEXT DAY—BEATEN.

HARRY HARPER

KNOCKOUTS I HAVE SEEN.

(By Ed. P. Smith)

No man ever was knocked colder in quicker time than was Martin Flaherty, a New England lightweight of the underclass in a contest of no importance although there was a dispute later as to whether battling Nelson did not score a quicker victory in one of his combats.

It was Dan. Hawkins a California lightweight, I think he was only a featherweight at the time, who hit Flaherty in the preliminary to the Bob Fitzsimmons-Jim Corbett battle in Carson City, Nevada on the afternoon of St. Patrick's Day, 1897.

Dan Stuart, good old Dan, who put through the Nevada fighting that is still on the salubrious books in the elversy state and permits of contests of almost any length, staged the preliminary merely as a matter of accommodation to Jim Corbett and the big California following he had. Flaherty happened to be in the neighborhood and as I remember the thing it was to have ten rounds. It didn't go ten seconds.

As time was called for the first round, Hawkins who was about the flashiest young fighter I ever saw, took about four strides out to meet the slayer and more careful, Flaherty, advancing from the other corner.

They got within range. Flaherty with his guard well up and moving with every inch measured. He had heard of the prowess of the Californian and didn't want to be caught napping. Hawkins, the ideal of speed and flash, stepped in feinting with lightning like rapidity towards the body. For just an instant Flaherty dropped his guard to protect his ribs. "Take a flash Hawkins looked over and found a resting place on Flaherty's jaw. There was just the one punch and it was all over.

Flaherty's head jerked back with a swaying like motion and then the little Irishman crumpled up into the saddest looking heap of a knockout any fighter ever saw. His knees collapsed and he fell as a wet rag would.

The crowd gave one gasp of astonishment and then let out a yell that pierced the crisp mountain air as a rifle shot would.

There was no use of Malachy Hogan of Chicago who was referee of that preliminary doing any counting. Of course he did, but when ten was said poor little Flaherty was absolutely dead to his surroundings. When they carried him to his corner he was completely out and he wasn't revived for ten minutes.

TO HOLD PUBLIC MEETING

Regarding Y. M. C. A. Movement in Kittery.

A number of York County towns are uniting their efforts to secure a secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association who will spend his time canvassing and training local leaders for the activities in the interest of men and boys. This plan of service is known as County Y. M. C. A. work and is already in operation in twenty different states of the Union.

There is in every community a wealth of natural leadership which is going to waste because it is not being used. The play life is being abused, supplementary educational advantages are being lost and the social atmosphere often contaminated because able workers do not know how to accomplish the things needed. The object of the County Y. M. C. A. plan is to discover and train these leaders and direct their energies along the line of greatest need.

Kennebunk, Old Orchard, Alfred, Orono and York have already organized for this work and a movement is now on foot to include Kittery in this group. A free public meeting has been planned for Wednesday evening, June 3, in Wentworth Hall, where an illustrated talk on some of the results which have already been accomplished in this state will be given by A. A. Heath of the State Y. M. C. A. executive committee. The plan of organization for Kittery will be explained in detail at this meeting. It is hoped by the committee in charge that a large number of the citizens of Kittery will come and lend their aid to this movement.

MAY LOSE SIGHT BY POWDER BLAST

Manchester Man Severely Injured by Explosion.

Struck in the face by a powder explosion, Tony Calverley aged 33, 4100 Page street Manchester, was badly injured Friday and it is feared he may lose his sight.

He was rendered unconscious, a large quantity of the skin torn from his face, his hair badly burned and much powder buried in his face. City Physician Lightbody attended him.

Calverley was blasting stone in the rear of his home at the time.

Frank W. Parker
The funeral services of Frank W. Parker were held from the First Christian church, Kittery Point today at 2 p. m., Rev. Mr. Amazeen officiating. Interment was in the First Christian cemetery under the direction of Undertaker O. W. Ham.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 5.—When Southpaw Harry Harper of the Washington Americans was sent to Minneapolis under optional agreement he exacted an unusual condition. It was nothing more nor less than he should step into the harness the very next day. Harper's condition was accepted, and he mounted the slab for the Millers against the invading Senators from Columbus. He lost a freak game. The recruit fanned sixteen opposition batters, and his team made fourteen hits behind him, but Harper was beaten, 5 to 7, the winning run scoring on an error. As an offset to Harper's effectiveness, however, he gave nine bases on balls and was touched for seven hits. Columbus clustered his runs and walks, while the Millers with plenty of hits and passes dribbled their counters over the home plate. The deal by which Minneapolis secured Harper and Outfielder Roudreau, for whom Washington previously gave five players to the Millers, originally was for Roudreau and another hurler. When this young hurler was sounded, however, he wished to consult his family before deciding to play in the west. This did not suit President Canfield, and Harper was sent for. His answer was affirmative provided he could pitch the next day, which he did, with the result narrated.

TIME EXTENDED.

Appointment of St. John's Pastor to Sept. 15.

Bishop Parker of the Episcopal diocese of New Hampshire on Friday extended the appointment of Rev. W. M. Partridge, acting pastor of the St. John's church to September 15. The original appointment of Mr. Partridge as priest in charge, was to June 15. The extension granted by the bishop is very gratifying to the parishioners of St. John's and the many acquaintances which the clergyman has made since beginning his work in this city hope the appointment will finally be made permanent.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRE NOTES.

THEATRE NOTES

The large crowds that throng to the Portsmouth Theatre every evening clearly show the continued popularity of that photo-play house. And the crowds this week are larger than usual, and it is easy to see why. It is just this. There are two of the biggest and best vaudeville acts ever seen in Portsmouth on the bill there for the last half of this week.

Baron's Band with thirteen musicians and a lady singer, is a high class act direct from the big time circuit. It has just completed a tour of the United States, and previously has appeared in all the leading European cities and before crowned heads. Every member of the troupe is a real musician of the highest grade, and the singer possesses a voice of sweet and pleasing tones. The repertoire offered includes several selections from Grand opera. It is indeed one big act.

The act presented by Gwynne and Gossell entitled "Their Golden Wedding" is a scenic novelty sketch that secures a big success. It has a touch that thrills you to the heart and in the joy there is a touch of sadness.

It is a sketch depicting a grand old couple, both bent with age and silver hair upon their brows, in their little home upon their golden wedding day. It is splendidly staged and delightful, presented. The quaint humor of the old couple celebrating their 50th anniversary by singing the old time favorite to the accompaniment of the melodeon, abounds in those sentiments which touch the human elements deeply, and leave you with an impression of great joy mingled somewhat with sadness.

The other two acts are also very good. The picture bill is unusually good, especially the Selig drama entitled "Two Brothers and a Girl."

NEW BILL FILED IN EMERY WILL CASE BY WIDOW

Judge White of Boston Urges Settlement of Case Out of Court.

In the contest over the will of Samuel W. Emery of this city who left $30,000, Judge White of the Suffolk superior court who presided at the second trial, which resulted as did the first trial, in a verdict in favor of the contestants, has urged counsel to get together and settle if possible. His honor has under advisement a motion to settle the verdict.

The motion was argued several days ago. The contestants are children of the testator by his first wife, who divorced him. They are Samuel W. Emery who tried and argued the case on behalf of himself and sisters, Marguerite Emery and Mrs. Mabel Weeks of Amesbury. Mary E. B. Emery, second wife and widow, received all the property by the will, the children having been cut off.

The first verdict was set aside by Judge Fessenden and before the second trial Herbert Parker counsel for Mrs. Mary E. B. Emery, asked Judge Bradley of the supreme court to have the case heard by a single justice of the court instead of a jury in the superior court. Judge Bradley doubled the motion and the case was tried a second time.

After the jury found undue influence on the part of the widow, breaking the will, a motion to set aside the verdict on the ground that it was against the evidence was filed by Attorney Parker for the widow and since the argument Judge White has suggested that counsel try to settle it.

Mr. Parker on Friday filed a bill of exceptions which seems indicative of a purpose not to settle it, but to fight the case to a finish.

Dependability—versus Ingenious Claims

MORE than 75 concerns now manufacture tires. We believe that everyone of these makes as good tires as he knows how, at the lowest cost his experience, equipment and methods make possible.

We believe that the average tire manufacturer is fair in his treatment of adjustments, and that few deliberately misrepresent their product, either verbally or in print.

We believe that no tire manufacturer can afford to make statements in print about his product, which statements cannot be borne out by the experience of his tires, in actual use.

We believe that the tire has never been made which will not "Rim-Cut" if run "flat" for any considerable distance, and that many makers, including ourselves, have always produced tires that would not otherwise "Rim-Cut."

We believe that many more tires "Break-at-the-Head" than cut at the Rim.

We believe that the Rubber-Riveting System of attaching the tread to the carcass (by means of a loosely woven fabric, which permits the raw rubber to permeate through its meshes and then vulcanize to carcass and tread) prevents, to a large extent, tread separation.

We have long used this "Goodrich" tires, as a common-place part of our fleet policy, but without laying any particular stress upon it.

We believe that the "Double-Cure" process, common with a great many tire manufacturers under different names, adds unnecessary expense to tire cost, which expense the Methods of the Goodrich Factory eliminate through "Precision" Single-Cure.

We believe that the cutting out of needless expenses like this (which our Precision Method save) constitutes one of the strongest reasons why the largest Rubber Factory in the World (Goodrich) produces the greatest mileage—per dollar of cost—in its tires.

And—The PROOF of the Tire is in the Mileage thereof!

We believe that the tire which sticks to the Truth in its Advertising, is reasonably sure to stick to the Facts in its Selling.

You have never yet found anything in Goodrich Advertising which was not in the Goods it advertised.

Hence you may pin your faith to the following statement—Goodrich Safety—Tread Tires—made with rubber, GUT-POSSUM, the greatest MILB-AGUE and Resiliency at the Fair-Cut (Test) per MILE, to Tire Users.

Test them and see!

An Interesting Question.

At the annual meeting of the Conference of Charities and Correction of New York City, held a few days ago, there was a discussion of an interesting question, a question that has been debated in the minds of many people. The question is whether frequent changes in styles of clothing with the consequent waste, or what would once have been considered seasons' waste, is a good thing or a bad thing.

The views expressed by those who took part in the discussion were such as have been expressed many times before by individuals who have given attention to the subject, and there was the disagreement that is sure to arise in the consideration of any important subject. Some of the speakers contended that frequent changes in styles are a good thing because they keep busy those by whom the goods are manufactured, thereby stimulating business all along the line, while others argued that frequent changes in styles made it impracticable for the makers of clothing, hats, etc., to operate steadily, accumulating stocks in dull times to be moved when the demand comes. Not much was said about the wastefulness involved by the discarding of clothing before it is half worn out because it has gone out of fashion, but all know that this waste is large and that it falls with a considerable degree of hardship upon thousands who are not able to renew their wardrobes at the too frequent behest of the fashion makers.

That the throwing away of clothes by no means worn out and the buying of new garments and hats makes business everybody knows. Fires and war also make business, but this fact does not make fires and war desirable. To be sure, attempts to keep up with the styles cannot be literally compared to fires and war, yet they are almost as harassing to the vast numbers of people who are not in a financial position to comfortably do so.

The evidence points to the fact that the majority of people, willingly or unwillingly, assent to the proposition that, on the whole, it is better to make frequent changes and keep the machinery of production humming. It would be better if in this matter, as in so many others, a happy medium could be reached and extremes avoided at both ends. With such facilities for production as there are now it is not necessary to wear clothing "to a frazzle," but life for many would be much easier and happier were it not for the constant struggle to keep up with the styles.

The church of England calls upon the people of Great Britain to stand manfully by God and the government. But that is just what the people of Germany are supposed to be doing, and those of the other nations involved in the struggle. There are many governments, but Christianity teaches that there is but one God. It is a good deal of a mix-up, and perhaps while it is going on the less said about God, the better. There is no reason to believe that He is running this war.

John Hays Hammond is confident that a "world court" is coming, and one with a "punch" in it. It will have to have considerable punch to hold its own when some of the nations get "by the ears." There is a lot of machinery now for the maintenance of peace, but it doesn't work well in time of war. The sword is still the final arbiter, and it is to be feared that it will remain so for many generations to come.

Raisuli of Morocco, the bandit who gained some notoriety in this country a few years ago by holding one Perdicaris for ransom, resulting in a call by Theodore Roosevelt, then president, for "Perdicaris alive or Raisuli dead," is now reported to be busy in behalf of Germany. Whether this means Raisuli alive or Germany dead remains to be seen.

A New York girl has been placed under observation as to her sanity, it being claimed that she has been driven crazy by tangoing. The fine point in the question is whether she was made crazy by tangoing or tangoed because she was crazy. The observers have a task before them which should be approached with care.

A New York paper says the fire hoodoo is clinging tenaciously to a certain locality. This sometimes happens in towns other than New York and continues till something else happens which is apt to bring unpleasant consequences to sundry individuals.

People used to think it was a pretty close race when a horse won by a nose, but at Belmont park on Long Island they have got it down to an eyelash.

The Italian army rules out the war correspondent. And yet the movements of that army will not be entirely hidden from the world.

CURRENT OPINION

Women Need the Ballot to Protect and Educate Themselves.

There ought to be a law requiring every man to give his wife a certain proportion of the joint earnings as a right and not as a privilege. We have no privilege in this country or should have none. A wife has a right to share in the family funds.

After the household needs are satisfied a woman should have a fixed sum to do with as she pleases. She ought to have the right to spend it foolishly if she wishes, and it should be automatically given her by her husband as if it were one of the pay envelopes in his place of business. No woman ought to be forced to go through her husband's pockets to collect a little spending money.

The long hours and the unsettled pecuniary rewards of housework are driving women into work outside the home. They won't stand the drudgery, and no one can blame them. They need the vote to protect and educate themselves. The women who don't want it are those whose sole purpose in life is the playing of the social game. They have already all they need and more than they give any equivalent for—all they desire save perhaps in some cases the social recognition to which they aspire.

When they prate about women's inferiority they don't mean their own inferiority. They are opposed to what Abraham Lincoln called "the plain people" having any voice in government, whether man or woman.—By Justice Charles J. Gay, Supreme Court of New York.

Newspaper paragraphs are still waiting for the psychological moment to spring the annual wheeze about taking 'em off.—Bladeford Journal.

Bounty on Grasshoppers

New Hampshire farmers should be interested in a bulletin, "How to Control the Grasshoppers," just issued by the experiment station of the Utah Agricultural College. Since 1904 Utah has been paying a bounty for every pound of grasshoppers caught, and it is estimated that in three years 4,458,000 grasshoppers have been destroyed and paid for. The bulletin gives directions for driving swarms of grasshoppers almost as sheep or cattle are driven, and says that they can be moved over about 20 or 40 rods a day. Here's a chance for entertaining exercise for the New Hampshire farmers.—Boston Globe.

The War Has Helped

Consul General Bray, Sidney, Australia, in his resume of trade conditions in that commonwealth for the year 1914, says that when the United States placed meat upon the free list in its 1913 tariff it was confidently expected that Australia would do a large business with the American Pacific seaboard in both canned and frozen commodities. "The year 1914," he writes, "opened with every prospect of this expectation being realized. Several Australian producers visited the United States and excellent results were being achieved when the war came on and interrupted the course of business. Embargoes were put on meat exports to countries other than Great Britain and its allies." The trade therefore, was much depressed at the year's close. The absence of refrigerated tonnage, owing to the demands of the war for troop ships, seriously affected it, and even canned goods space in ships to Great Britain was materially curtailed. Mr. Bray notes that the Australian states are considering legislation still further restricting meat exports and it is therefore out of the question for Australian exporters to pay any further practical attention to the American market at present. Two hundred million pounds of fresh meat was imported into this country during the seven months of 1914 preceding the war, Australia then standing third on the list and just getting limbered up. All will agree with Sherman's definition of war, but the European horror has done much to shield the farmers of this country from a free trade purgatory.—Concord Patriot.

Teaching Middles to Talk

Those who are pessimistic about our army and navy should cheer up. We may not be keeping up with other nations in the matter of battleships and in adding to our standing army, but we are constantly introducing little innovations which are bound to make our soldiers and sailors attractive to one another and to the fair sex. This every battleship is to be a floating schoolroom and the chummiest Jack tar will be able to sew on a button and even, in a pinch, to do knitting and fancy work. But that isn't all. Secretary Daniels was at Annapolis the other day and witnessed the graduation of a class in after-dinner speaking, which has been introduced in order to give the middles a facility for speaking in public.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Casey's View

"O'm a peaceable man an' I hope that O'm may never be anything else." "Then you don't war with Germany?" "O! do not. But, begorry, if Jarmany wants war wid us, O'm 'ink we ought to be neighborly an' accommodatin'."—Boston Transcript.

The End of the Watchful Waiting

We are done with "watchful waiting" so it seems. We have "watched" during many weary months the killing of American citizens in Mexico; the destruction of their property; the daily insults to our flag; the inhuman slaughter of innocent men, women and children; the devastation of an entire country and the shedding of seas of blood and our "waiting" has encouraged all of this to the shame of the United States and won the contempt of the civilized world. Now, at the eleventh hour, our President proclaims that Mexico "is without a government and is starving" and he proposes to act. Mexico has been without a government for many months. It has been starving and suffering for an equal length of time. There is no greater excuse for intervention today than there was a year ago. As was pointed out in the beginning intervention is the only course that will restore peace to Mexico and it is better that it should come today than not come at all. But the shame of it is that it was not resorted to months ago; that the dirty job we must do in Mexico wasn't begun when it was possible to have saved the lives of so many people, when the torch of the incendiary had not turned into blackened ruins so many towns and cities and when had we acted courageously and firmly the task we now have to perform would not have presented as many obstacles as it does today. "The words 'watchful waiting' will forever be associated with an administration which failed to do its duty at the proper time and which has done much to bring the American foreign policy into contempt before all the world. They are beginning to salute the American flag in Mexico now with out being asked to do so.—Portland Press.

AFTER PORTSMOUTH'S TEACHERS

Bay State Will Take Several at Increased Salaries.

Portsmouth school teachers are in great demand and on Thursday two superintendents of schools from Massachusetts made calls here in search of teachers for the Bay State. Mr. Lutz of Cohasset and Mr. Whitman of Swampscott interviewed several teachers and it is understood that they left the city with one each. In the case of one teacher it is understood that she will receive $800 in place of $650. Portsmouth has the best school teachers of any city in New England.

THE JUNE BRIDE

June's wedding bells bring hurries and worries to the bride's friends. A suitable gift must be chosen, matters of apparel must be looked to. And everything must be just right—a wedding is a real event. At such a season the suggestions held out in the advertising columns of a live newspaper like this are invaluable. Frequently the advertising will give a direct answer to your problems but in any event it will guide you to the right store. Every day the service qualities of newspaper advertising become more and more apparent.

BOSTON LETTER

Boston, June 5.—Governor David I. Walsh has started the boom for a great exposition to commemorate the anniversary of the Landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth in 1620. This boom will take the form of a special train to the Panama-Pacific Exposition filled with prominent New Englanders, every one of whom will be a boomer for the Tri-Centennial of the Landing of the Pilgrims. In every city, town and hamlet through which New Englanders will pass it is planned to placard with posters of various hues announcing the big New England event in 1920. The train will leave Boston shortly after the Fourth of July and will reach the Pacific coast so that the party can take part in the celebration of Massachusetts Day, July 18 at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. "I want to personally urge every member who can possibly make the trip to go in a body to San Francisco and be there on Massachusetts Day, July 18," declared Governor Walsh addressing the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange. "We want to make the day such a memorable one that it will far surpass any other state day at the exposition. It should be made so big that its memories will be foremost in the minds of every person in the country. The chief reason however, why we should make this trip is because of the Tri-Centennial of the Landing of the Pilgrims which will be celebrated in this state in 1920. We owe it to the historic spot in Plymouth to celebrate the occasion properly, and we are going through with it; so prepare now and let the world know of the mighty importance of it. Without this sacred spot there probably never would have been any Concord and Lexington, or state of Massachusetts, or New England, or even a United States of America."

The National Fire Protection Association has started its "Safe and Sound" campaign. Thousands of the association's bulletins urging a national celebration of Independence Day in place of what is called the annual orgy of fire and noise, are being sent out by Secretary Franklin H. Wentworth.

A large delegation of prominent anti-suffrage leaders will attend the convention in the auditorium at Springfield on June 9th and 10th. Plans are being made in Springfield for an attendance of at least 4,000. Former Senator Joseph Bailey of Texas will be the principal speaker at the mass meeting on June 9. Miss Marjorie Foreman of New York and Dr. Ernest Bernbaum of Harvard will also speak.

It is the policy of the navy department to have every ship on keen edge in view of the tense situation in Mexico and in Europe.

SWOBODA NOT A GERMAN SPY

But Alleged American Held by France Pending Further Investigations Paris, June 4.—Charges of espionage preferred by the military authorities against Raymond Swoboda appear to be unfounded, says the Paris Journal.

The inquiry conducted by Major Julien of the Paris permanent court-martial has failed to bring out proof that Swoboda served as a German spy. It already has been established that he had nothing to do with starting the fire aboard the steamship La Touraine, a charge which led to his arrest. While there is no strong evidence against Swoboda, Major Julien, before ordering his release, has decided to continue his inquiry at all places in France where Swoboda is known to have stayed.

ALIENS HELP STOP RIOTS IN MEXICO

Laredo, Tex., June 4.—Tales of hunger riots, wanton looting and bloodshed subsequent to the evacuation of Monterey by Villa troops, were told to day by passengers arriving here from that city. Five rioters were killed and twelve wounded, it is declared, by Rafael Ferrigno, an Italian subject, when a mob attempted to raid his tailoring establishment. Ferrigno is said to have been imprisoned.

A police force organized by Villa authorities prior to the evacuation, the arrivals declare, proved powerless to check the disorder, but after three days of lawlessness vigilance committees, made up of Mexicans and foreigners, are reported to have brought order by drastic methods. Men, women and children participated in the riots.

According to an American passenger who reached here today, the last Villa train left Monterey May 18. With the departure of the last of the Villa forces, the starving people started out in large bodies to loot bakery, grocery and butcher shops, in some cases efforts were made to purchase food from small merchants, but the exorbitant prices demanded and the request that payment be made in gold or silver brought violence. After satisfying their hunger, followed by the looting of liquor establishments, the mobs, it could be learned as to the amount. Henry Ford, who now owns 11,000 shares of the present $2,000,000 worth of stock will receive $27,500,000. In August 300,000 owners of Ford cars will receive a share of the profits of the company in the form of rebates amounting to $15,000,000.

WAR IS STARTED ON GIPSY MOTHS

PROFESSOR O'KANE HAS SET OUT 1500 COLONIES OF PARASITES.

Durham, N. H., June 4.—Prof. W. C. O'Kane completed today his task of setting out 1500 colonies of a parasitic parasite that will kill a gypsy moth before the moth is born. Each colony, neatly housed in a perforated tin can attached to a moth infested tree, contains 1000 parasites. Each parasite is capable of killing one gypsy moth, and each female parasite will bring forth about 100 little parasites all ready for business next summer. From a gypsy moth point of view the situation is rapidly becoming critical. The little eggs of parasites are attached to trees in secluded places from the Massachusetts line nearly to the lake region. They were bred in the United States laboratories in Massachusetts, but the original material was collected by Prof. O'Kane in this state and they are guaranteed to stand a New Hampshire winter.

The parasite is a harmless looking little grub about half the size of the head of a pin, but the female of the species always makes holes in the eggs of gypsy moths and lays her own eggs inside. Her caterpillars hatch first and eat the contents of the gypsy moth eggs. Then they emerge, lay eggs of their own and the process is repeated next season.

The parasites just distributed are curled up inside gypsy moth eggs where they are ravenously feeding. In course of time they will fly out through the holes in the tin can and ruin about 75,000,000 more gypsy moth eggs.

The gypsy moths that escape this massacre will be promptly attacked by other parasites, of which about half a dozen varieties are now being trained by Professor O'Kane and are to be turned out to graze later in the season.

The parasite just distributed was discovered in Europe by men sent out by the United States department of agriculture, but it has since been naturalized and acclimatized.

ITALIAN ARMY OVER ISONZO RIVER

Making Slow Progress in Direction of Tolmino--Russians Moving up the San River

Rome, June 4.—An official statement issued last night says reports of preparatory movements along the entire front show that the situation continues to develop in favor of the Italians who have assumed an offensive against the Austrians, who are strongly entrenched and supported by powerful artillery. The statement, signed by General Cadorna, chief of the general staff follows:

"Preliminary movements and engagements continued all along the frontier during June 3, developing always to our advantage. Special mention must be made of the favorable, although slow, progress our troops are developing on the southern slopes of Monte Nero, on the steep crags on the left bank of the Isonzo, near Tolmino, and on the line of the valley. Our troops are fighting with dash and determination against Austrians strongly entrenched and supported by powerful artillery.

"In the Carnia the Austrians continue fierce but vain attacks on Alpine detachments near Monte Croce pass but they invariably are repulsed."

An official statement issued today says:

"Our vessels on their return today from their scouting cruise reported that twenty-four hours after the bombardment of Monfalcone by our destroyers on May 31 clouds of smoke and tongues of flame could be seen from Fort Ruso rising from Monfalcone."

The inhabitants of the towns of Alai, Avio and Borghetto were overjoyed at the arrival of the Italian troops, for the wholesale requisitions by the Austrian authorities of the food supplies had reduced the people almost to the verge of starvation. The first act of the Italian general in command was to issue to the inhabitants 5000 rations of bread and 2000 rations of flour. There are still posted on the walls the Austrian proclamations ordering the people to remain within doors between nine o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning, and imposing other restrictions on pain of severe punishment.

The achievement of a detachment of Alpine mountaineers in capturing an entrenched Austrian position in a hostile of Val Inferno, near the head of Val Bagnu, has been noted by the Ministry of War. The detachment was led by a lieutenant, who was wounded during the assault, but continued to direct his men until the position was captured. King Victor Emmanuel himself planned the military medal on the lieutenant's breast.

RUSSIANS MOVE UP THE CAN

Petrograd, June 4.—The communication issued by the War Office last night says:

"The battle in Galicia continued June 1 with the same desperation in whole front, from the Vistula to the region of Nadworna. On the left bank of the Lower San our troops, after a powerful advance on the second of "Attacks delivered by the enemy Monday between Przemyśl and the Dniester were repulsed.

"In the regions beyond the Dniester the enemy, concentrating important forces in the town of Stry, succeeded by advancing on the Tismenitz-Stry front. They sustained great losses, however, leaving a thousand prisoners in the course of our counter-attacks.

"On the Switz-Lomnitz front Monday, we pressed the enemy on the Bystrzyca and successfully repulsed his attacks."

"West of Rudnik," says the preceding official statement, "we almost completely annihilated the second, third and fourth Tyrol regiments.

"On the Iltzra Tuesday the enemy sent out a great cloud of gas which at first reached the river, but later, owing to a change in the wind, was carried back into the enemy's trenches, compelling a large number of Germans to leave the trenches along a wide front. Our fire decimated them as they fled."

Advance in Mesopotamia

London, June 4.—An account of recent fighting between British and Turkish forces in Mesopotamia was given out officially here as follows:

"After hostile columns which recently threatened us on the lines of the Euphrates and Karun rivers had been successfully dispersed, as described in previous communications, a continued naval and military attack was organized on the morning of May 31 against the remaining hostile forces. In the position a couple of miles north of Kurna.

"Starting at 1.30 a. m., our troops, partly by wading, partly by boats, skillfully executed a turning movement. The enemy's guns were soon silenced by our artillery. Excellent practice was made by naval guns and by a territorial battery, which was especially conspicuous. The heights occupied by the Turks were seized by noon and the enemy fled, leaving three sixteen-pound guns, completely with ammunition, and nearly 250 prisoners in our hands.

"After harmlessly exploding several heavily charged mines discovered later in the river-bed and on land, we continued our advance on June 1, but found that the enemy had hastily evacuated his camps at Barhan and Ratta, leaving a number of tents standing. He was observed retreating upstream and native boats, which were speedily pursued by the naval flotilla.

"By evening we reached a point five miles north of Ezra's Tomb, some thirty-three miles north of Kurna.

"The Turkish steamer Bulbul was overtaken and sunk. We also captured two large lighters—one of which contained three field guns, ammunition, mines—and about 200 prisoners. The pursuit was continued by moonlight.

"Our casualties have been trifling, about twenty in all."

were "more women's legs sticking out of the windows of hell than men's." He also asserted the burden of vindictiveness and devilishness is displayed by women, and wound up with the assertion that the silk stockings class of Morristown turn more to champagne suppers and the tango than they do to reading their bibles.
Judge Sizer in his charge told the jury they were the judges of the facts. If they believed Mrs. Wilder's story that she had been led astray they must find for her husband. Even if she had been a willing participant in the relations with Dr. Williams, the husband had been wronged, and it was for the jury to say how greatly he had been damaged.

DIVER RECOVERS LOST ANCHOR

The 2700-lb. anchor belonging to Marge No. 1, owned by the Rockland Line Company, which was lost a few days ago half way between Red Spar buoy and Spruce Creek, was recovered on Friday evening by Diver Brooks. He was assisted by Charles H. Stewart.
The anchor was found in 80 feet of water. It was found that the twenty fathoms of chain attached to the lost anchor had piled up on top of it.
The members of the crew of the barge were greatly amused when Brooks arose to the surface, for besides the anchor, attached to him were a number of sculptures and a lumpfish.

Pictures can be classed as necessities in all homes. There is always a superfluity of cheap, light-weight silver and a scarcity of pictures among presents especially WEDDING PRESENTS.

A picture is never used up, never thrown aside, but is always a pleasing reminder.

And pictures are not always costly. A good subject, framed appropriately and tastefully, may be had for the price of an undesirable and cheap piece of glass or silver.
